Liberals with insurmountable lead in Labrador by-election

Conservatives, NDP in distant tie for second

Toronto, April 3rd, 2013 – In a random sampling of public opinion taken by the Forum Poll™ among 274 residents of Labrador, Canada's least populous federal riding, where a by-election will be called soon, close to 6-in-10 will vote for the Liberal Yvonne Jones (57%), while just one fifth will vote for either the Conservative former incumbent, Peter Penashue (20%) or the NDP candidate Harry Borlase (21%). The Green Party will not field a candidate in this by-election.

When Justin Trudeau is named in the voting preference question as Liberal leader, which will almost certainly be the case when the by-election occurs, results are even more conclusive. Fully two thirds will vote Liberal (63%), compared to just one fifth who would vote NDP (21%) and as few as one seventh who would vote for the former Conservative incumbent (16%).

"It's clear the Liberals have this one in the bag, and it makes you wonder how Peter Penashue won the riding in the first place, considering his Liberal counterpart is a relative unknown," said Forum Research President, Dr. Lorne Bozinoff.

Methodology

The Forum Poll™ was conducted by Forum Research with the results based on an interactive voice response telephone survey of 274 randomly selected residents of Labrador, 18 years of age and older. The poll was conducted from March 30th to April 2nd, 2013.

Results based on the total sample are considered accurate +/- 6 %, 19 times out of 20. Subsample results will be less accurate. Margins of error for subsample (such as age, gender) results are available at www.forumresearch.com/samplestim.asp

Where appropriate, the data has been statistically weighted to ensure that the sample reflects the actual population according to the latest Census data.

This research is not necessarily predictive of future outcomes, but rather, captures opinion at one point in time. Forum Research conducted this poll as a public service and to demonstrate our survey research capabilities.

With offices across Canada and around the world, 100% Canadian-owned Forum Research is one of the country's leading survey research firms. This Forum Poll™ and other polls may be found at Forum's poll archive at www.forumresearch.com/polls.asp
